Report on Town History.

We are glad to report that substantial progress has been made during the year on the Town History in several of its departments. A minute record of the progress in this report would consume too much space. We would rather our fellow citizens would call and personally examine what we have done. In this way one can judge concerning the whole matter, for, as we said last year, "one needs to see the magnitude of the work in order to fairly judge of the time and means required for its accomplishment." It will therefore give us much pleasure to give information relative to any part of the work at any time.

Report of the Library Trustees.

The Library Trustees respectfully submit the following brief report :

In making our selection of books, we have endeavored to select only those of standard authors, believing that a less number of books of a higher standard are better than a larger number of cheap works by comparatively unknown authors, and we invite careful attention to our selections of fiction. We have also selected a number of books on various subjects, books which we believe will be of interest to a class of readers who care little for works of fiction. We have also two years of Harper's Magazine with the binder.

The volume Mr. Isaacs, is the gift of Mrs. Emily Huggins. We have also received from friends, The Youth's Companion for 1904. These interesting papers, well adapted to all ages, are accepted believing there may be families of children whose parents feel unable to pay for them, and such can, if they choose, have them to read without cost.

Your committee has spent considerable time in making these selections and trust they will be reasonably satisfactory, and would urge upon the people a greater patronage of the libraries.

A true copy of Warrant—ATTEST :

ALICE O. F. YOUNG,	} School Board.
GEORGE L. DEMING,
FRED C. PARDY,

Report of the School Board.

The following is the report of the School Board for the year ending Feb. 15th, 1906, which has been one of quiet progress and marked success.

Perfection we claim for none; but our schools have been such, in most cases, that it would be hard to criticise them unfavorably. The amount of money placed in our hands has enabled us to retain the services of our own teachers and by the slight increase in wages which we have been enabled to pay has given encouragement to more experienced teachers from abroad to apply for positions in our schools.

We believe it to be money well invested. We wish there was a greater interest taken by every voter (male and female), not only in the welfare of our children and schools; but in the future welfare of our Nation; for the future of that Nation depends upon the children, not only the children of true and loyal American citizens; but upon those of "The stranger within our gate," for they are coming to number more than our own and if we wish our Union preserved and governed by Americans we must educate this foreign element as good American citizens.

The only place to do this is in our schools for they will not learn it in their own homes.

We have maintained 29 terms of school in 11 houses, amounting to 292 weeks of school.

Besides the usual small repairs necessary we have thoroughly repaired outside and in of division 4 house. Division 8 house has been thoroughly repaired on the inside and a new blackboard placed in the school room. This house should be painted on the outside the coming year. Division 9 house has had a new stove and blackboard, and been whitewashed and papered. This house should have a new floor as soon as possible. Division 10 house has been whitewashed and papered. Division 12 house has had a new table and blackboard. This house should be painted on the outside another year and on the inside as soon as possible. It also needs a new stove and floor.

There are some repairs needed on other houses in town making it necessary for the district to raise quite a sum for repairs if the houses are to be kept in the best shape not only for the interests of the schools ; but for the best interests of the town.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE O. F. YOUNG,	} School Board of Cornish.
